

The Priory Church of the Holy Trinity, Micklegate Weekly Pew Sheet (13-19 September)

All are welcome to attend in person. However, if you are unable to come in person you can still join in by telephone or internet.

- For the time being, a one-way system will be in operation when the church building is open.
 - Entrance: from Micklegate through the churchyard
 - Exit: through the West Door onto Priory Street
- In line with government guidance, we require all visitors (unless exempt) to wear face coverings during worship or while visiting for private prayer and sightseeing.
- There are hand sanitiser points for public use at the entry and exit – please do make use of these as you enter and leave the church.
- NHS Test and Trace: Holy Trinity has now been asked to take your contact details when you attend for worship. This will only be used if there is a need to contact you due to the Test & Trace programme. Consent forms are available at the entrance and can be deposited in the donation box by the entrance. We will hold this information securely and will destroy it after 21 days.

For those at home, the weekly pew sheet and service book will be posted to you. If you have internet access, both are available online. You can join from 5 minutes before the start time.

Collect: Almighty and everlasting God, who called your servant Ninian to preach the gospel to the people of northern Britain: raise up in this and every land heralds and evangelists of your kingdom, that your Church may make known the immeasurable riches of your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Post Communion Prayer: Holy Father, who gathered us here around the table of your Son to share this meal with the whole household of God: in that new world where you reveal the fullness of your peace, gather people of every race and language to share with Ninian and all your saints in the eternal banquet of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
